Welcome to Jaymes Williams Fotografi! I don't like to think of my creations as 'products.' They are creations but the term product is an appropriate term from a legal perspective. However, for the remainder of this agreement, the word 'creations' will be used in place of the word 'product.'

While using my creations, you need to know that all content within is the intellectual property of Jaymes Williams Fotografi. All images, website content and application code are the original creations of Jaymes Williams Fotografi. All creations previously released under the name 'Enigma Fotografi' are owned by Jaymes Williams Fotografi. I strongly value my intellectual property and will protect it to the fullest extent of the law. That being said, I will always credit images or other content from other sources whenever used. Any such content will be either public domain material or used by permission.

Some Jaymes Williams Fotografi creations are made available to the public for their artistic enjoyment. They may be used for personal use only. Use of my creations in any publication, including websites or blogs, without the expressed written consent of Jaymes Williams Fotografi is prohibited.

Any images made available as 'wallpapers' are for non-commercial or non-editorial use only. Items marked as 'wallpapers' may not be altered in any manner and may be freely transmitted provided they are not used for publication or profit. All images are watermarked and can be tracked. Any commercial or editorial use of any Jaymes Williams Fotografi creation without the expressed written consent of Jaymes Williams Fotografi is prohibited. Any modification to any Jaymes Williams Fotografi creation is prohibited.

Defacement, 'hacking,' or reverse engineering of any Jaymes Williams Fotografi website or application is prohibited. Jaymes Williams Fotografi disclaims any responsibility for any damages resulting from unauthorized modifications of its websites or applications.

All available legal remedies will be pursued for prohibited activities.
